Redeeming Love

By Francine Rivers

"Though fallen low, God raised her up, an angel." Set in the California gold country of the 1850s, Redeeming Love by Francine Rivers retells a biblical story of redemption and all-consuming love. Visiting town for supplies, farmer Michael Hosea notices the beautiful Angel, a woman sold as a child into a life of ill-repute. In a blinding moment of revelation, Michael realizes Angel is destined to be his wife. How many barriers will he face in his quest for her love?

Redeeming Love has celebrated 20 years on Christian bestseller lists and has sold more than a million copies.

UFL Reads! meets the fourth Sunday of most months.
