

Sunday, January 22 • 2:00 - 3:00 p.m.
MacFarlane-Hood Reading Room

UFL Reads!, the library's book club for adults, will begin another series of reads by Local Authors. Urbana-Champaign is fortunate to be home to a plethora of creative individuals—many of whom are writers. Whether born in central Illinois or here by choice, these local authors have provided us with hours of enjoyment. Join UFL Reads! as we sample their books.

UFL Reads! Books by Local Authors

Life Itself: A Memoir

by Roger Ebert

Life Itself: A Memoir details Roger Ebert's life from his childhood in Urbana, and his adventures at the University of Illinois, to his career as a film critic. Along the way he candidly discusses his fight with cancer, his alcoholism, his friendships, and his marriage to Chaz. The book is witty, moving, and a window into Ebert's multi-layered life.

Upcoming UFL Reads!

Sunday, February 26 • Dead Sea Codex by Sarah Wisseman
Wisseman is an archaeological scientist at the University of Illinois

Sunday, March 25 • The Year We Left Home by Jean Thompson
Thompson is a professor emerita at the UIUC English department
