

American Classics We Missed

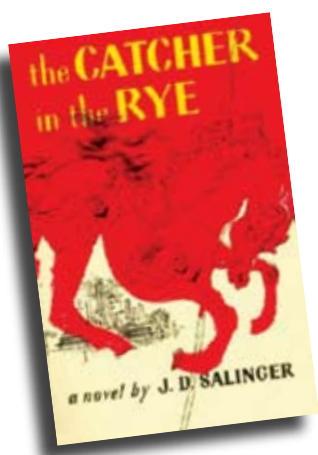

Sunday, March 27 • 2:00 - 3:00 p.m.
MacFarlane-Hood Reading Room

Embarrassed that you never read that socially important book? Join other readers in the same boat—and some enthusiastic re-readers—and finally indulge in that iconic American title.

Join us when UFL Reads! discusses

The Catcher in the Rye

by J.D. Salinger

Discover the world of J.D. Salinger's alienated and angst-ridden teen Holden Caulfield. We see through Holden's eyes as he journeys from his former prep school to New York. Through a variety of stream-of-consciousness adventures and interactions with folks and friends in the City, Holden tells us what it's like to be a rebellious teen in the 1950s. The Catcher in the Rye is a controversial book, as it is a frank, uncensored look at Holden's life. But it also makes us think about larger issues of identity and belonging. From a notorious beginning to an American classic, is this a work that speaks to teens, to adults, or to all ages?

UFL Reads! upcoming discussions:

April - No book club

May 22 - Catch 22 by Joseph Heller

UFL Reads! meets the fourth Sunday of most months.
