Photographic Use Policy

Patrons may request photocopies, copy prints, slides, and digital images for most photographs in the Champaign County Historical Archives. Copies of photographs are provided for personal and educational use. Patrons planning to reproduce/publish photographs in books, articles, exhibits, videos, electronic transmission (publishing an image on a web site, for example) or other media must request permission in advance by submitting this Reproduction Use Form. Permission will normally be granted as long as applicable use fees are paid and donor or copyright restrictions do not prohibit the intended use. The long-term preservation of the image is the primary concern of the archives and as such, the archives reserves the right to limit reproduction due to age, condition or format.

Permission for reproduction is for one-time use and is limited to the applicant and is nontransferable. Permission for reproduction is granted only for the expressed purpose described in this application. Any subsequent use constitutes reuse and must be applied for in writing. Any change in use from that stated on the application requires permission of the Champaign County Historical Archives. An additional fee may be charged for reuse or change in use. This permission is non-exclusive; the Champaign County Historical Archives reserves the right to reproduce the image and to allow others to reproduce the image.

The publishing party assumes all responsibility for clearing reproduction rights and for infringement of the U.S. Copyright Code. Please note that physical ownership of the image by The Champaign County Historical Archives does not imply copyright, and it is the applicant's responsibility to determine copyright ownership. In addition to the permission of the Champaign County Historical Archives, additional permissions may be required. It is the responsibility of the applicant to obtain permission. The Champaign County Historical Archives will aid the applicant in contacting individuals pertaining to permissions by providing addresses, when available. The Champaign County Historical Archives assumes no responsibility for infraction of copyright laws, invasion of privacy, or any other improper or illegal use that may arise from reproduction of any image. Please see the U.S. Copyright Office web site at <http://www.copyright.gov> for more information.

In all instances, the applicant agrees to hold the Champaign County Historical Archives and its agents harmless against any and all claims arising or resulting from the use of this image and shall indemnify the Champaign County Historical Archives and its agents for any and all costs and damages arising or resulting from any such unauthorized use.

All reproductions must include Champaign County Historical Archives, The Urbana Free Library, Urbana, Illinois, in a caption or credit. When reproducing image(s) for a film, a credit line in the closing credits will suffice.

The applicant agrees to send the Champaign County Historical Archives one copy of the work containing the reproduction.

Questions regarding record reproduction or publishing should be directed to:
