

About the Friends

The Friends of The Urbana Free Library is a group of over 600 people who appreciate and support the library. Since its founding in 1975, the Friends group has

- Raised over $100,000 for new library books and summer reading clubs through semiannual book sales.
- Purchased a wide range of new equipment for the library.
- Developed and maintained the flower boxes and landscaping around the library.
- Delivered thousands of books to hundreds of homebound Urbana residents.
- Contributed funds to the long-awaited expansion of the library (see the picture to the right).

Join the Friends of The Urbana Free Library to participate in Friends' activities—or just to support our nationally-ranked public library.

Joining the Friends

Membership in the Friends is one of the few remaining bargains.

With your annual membership of only $10 you will receive...

- The satisfaction of supporting a successful organization that has helped build a great public library for over 25 years.
- This Month at The Urbana Free Library and the monthly calendar of Children's Events mailed to your home or business every month.
- Early admission to "members only" night at all Friends book sales.
- Opportunities to participate in Friends projects and to become a leader of the organization.

The Friends group is friendly and enthusiastic. It always welcomes new members at its monthly planning meetings.

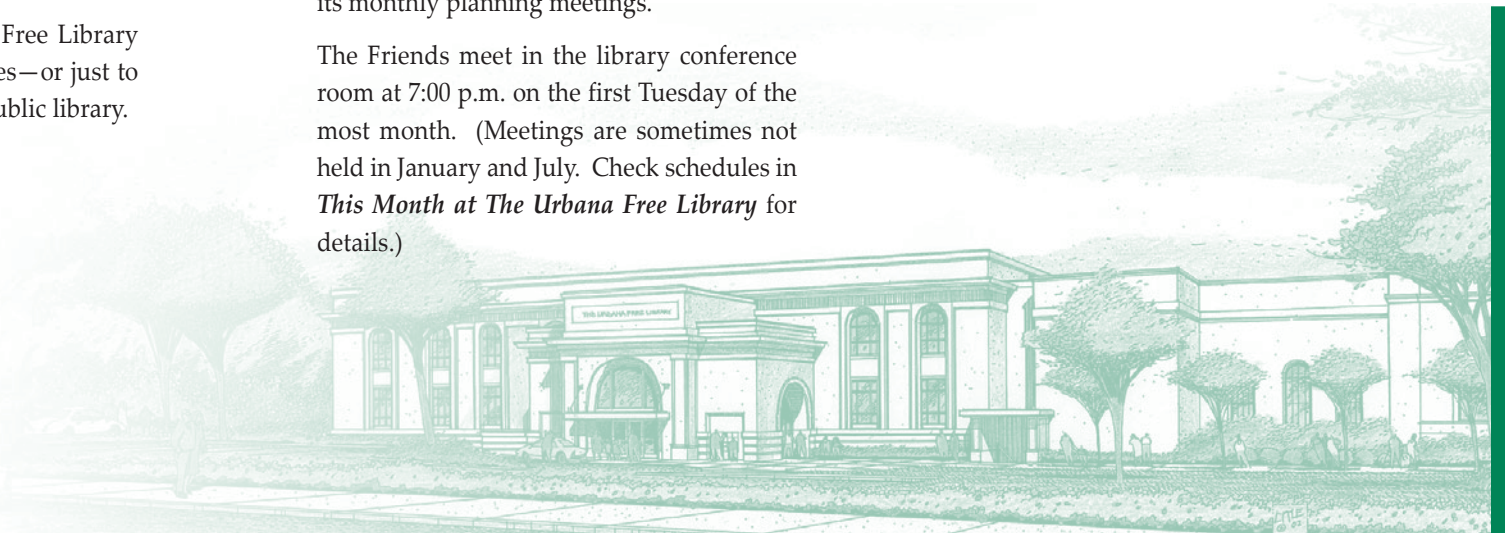

The Friends meet in the library conference room at 7:00 p.m. on the first Tuesday of the most month. (Meetings are sometimes not held in January and July. Check schedules in This Month at The Urbana Free Library for details.)

Friends Finances

When you join the Friends, your dues go to:

- Mailing This Month at The Urbana Free Library and the monthly calendar of Children's Events to the Friends members.
- Capital expenditures for the Library including equipment and construction.
- Plants for the library's gardens and flower boxes.
- Sponsoring the Herbert Goldhor Award, given each year to an outstanding graduate of the University of Illinois Graduate School of Library and Information Sciences who is specializing in public libraries.

When you support Friends book sales, 100 percent of the profits go directly to the library, where they are used to purchase new books and to support reading programs.

GREAT VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES WITH THE FRIENDS

The Friends of The Urbana Free Library is a great organization. If you are interested in joining or helping, fill in both sides of this form, and return it to the library. (You don't have to join the Friends to volunteer, but at only $10.00 a year, which includes a free subscription to This Month at The Urbana Free Library and the monthly calendar of Children's Events, it's a real bargain.)

Book Sales

The Friends holds massive sales of great used books each spring, summer, and fall.

Book sales raise over $20,000 a year for new library books and for reading programs—but they are heavily attended community events as well as fundraisers. As a result of Friends book sales, thousands of Urbana residents and visitors have added to their home libraries at minimal cost.

Most of the books sold in our sales are high-quality used books donated by local residents. The sales also include books removed from the library's collections.

Book sales run for four days, beginning with a pre-sale only for Friends members on Thursday night, one day of full-priced sales, one day at half-price, and a free giveaway of leftover books the last day.
